TUCSON, Ariz. – Lisa Bossard Funk has joined Mister Car Wash as Corporate Counsel for Mergers and Acquisitions, bringing with her nearly 30 years of legal experience in the areas of merger and acquisition, commercial real estate and employment law. Prior to joining Mister Car Wash, Funk was a partner in the law firm of Bossé Rollman & Funk and VP of Legal & HR for a privately held, international cardiopulmonary products company.

Funk is a graduate of the University of Arizona, James E. Rogers College of Law, where she teaches a practicum on M & A law each spring. Lisa clerked for the Hon. James Duke Cameron on the Arizona Supreme Court. Currently, she serves as President and Director of Arizona Women Lawyers Association, Member at Large of the Executive Council of the Business Section of the Arizona State Bar, Director of Pima County Bar Association, Director of Tohono Chul Park, and Member of Women Presidents Organization–Tucson Chapter.

“We are thrilled to welcome Lisa to our Tucson-based management team,” said John Lai, CEO of Mister Car Wash. “As we continue our steady expansion into new markets across the U.S., she will provide legal advice to our acquisition team, coordinate due diligence review and local counsel, draft acquisition documentation and negotiate with sellers and real estate investors.”

Headquartered at 222 East 5th Street in Tucson, Arizona, Mister Car Wash operates 157 car washes and 32 express lubes in 18 states. It is an operating company of Leonard Green & Partners L.P.
