Mister Car Wash Adds 30th Houston Store

TUCSON, Ariz. – Mister Car Wash has expanded its presence in Houston with the acquisition of Regency Car Wash on S. Main. The company added a 30th Houston store to its portfolio with its April 5th acquisition of this single full serve location.

“It’s exciting to reach this store count milestone in Houston, the origin of the Mister Car Wash brand,” said John Lai, President and CEO of Mister Car Wash. “We’re proud to expand the Mister Car Wash experience to our customers in Houston and to continue building our market presence.”

Headquartered in Tucson, Arizona Mister Car Wash employs over 6,500 team members with nearly 1,200 employees and a regional support center in Houston.

“The addition of this location gives Mister Car Wash presence in a high growth area of Houston and has strong upside potential,” said Casey Lindsay, Director of Acquisitions for Mister Car Wash. This location will feature Mister Car Wash signature products, wash process and offer customers Unlimited Wash Club plans.

With this latest acquisition, Mister Car Wash now operates 165 car washes in 19 states.
